

Organizing Expert In this era of clutter, professional organizer Cindy Bernstein, owner of Aim 4 Order, aim4order.com, 410-484-8328, has a knack for restoring a sense of calm to your home—and, consequently, your life. Bernstein will gently help you give the heave-ho to all those maps, medical records, old phone books, and baskets of unread junk mail that have a way of taking over your house. And unlike other expert organizers, Bernstein will not only help you decide what to toss, she'll arrange appointments with local donation organizations and even personally haul stuff out of the house.
